

Dr. J. H. Platt, Jr.'s dwelling house in West Hartford, Ct., together with its contents, and a barn and sheds adjoining, were destroyed by fire Thursday morning. Loss $1800.

The chair stock factory of A. Wakefield of Ludlow, was burned on Wednesday morning last week, destroying the main building and machinery. Total loss about $2000. It was insured for about $1400.

Daniel Digin of Burlington has been bound up in $100 bonds to answer at the County Court, for prowling about the streets in woman's clothes and making people believe he was a ghost.

A man named Joseph Burnham, who removed, some years since from Middle- ton, in Rutland County, Vt., to Wisconsin, has recently been discovered to be heir to an immense property in England. The estate amounts to the round sum of $22,000,000.

One Stockum and his wife, living near Ballston, N. Y., have been sent to the county jail for six months, for cruelty to their own children. The special act consisted in getting drunk and driving their daughter, a girl of fifteen years, to go six miles through a blinding storm to get them a jug of whisky. The girl went two miles and turned back exhausted, when her drunken father beat her with a raw whip, and made her perform the cruel errand.

It is now ascertained that no less than ninety-two lives were lost on the lakes during the late gale of November 24th.

In music the slaves at the South are greatly proficient, as every one knows; but in art, says the Post, they have bad taste, when once they run away, not to show any partiality for the "old masters."

GARIBALDI.—A penny subscription has been started at Brighton, England, in order to give every person an opportunity to express his sympathy and admiration for the emancipator of Italy.

Hermogene Perry, a monomaniac by reason of having won and lost some successful lottery ventures murdered a man named Droze, at New Orleans, for a supposed (but not intended) insult, stabbing him down in the very arms of his wife. Perry's mother, as crazy as himself, stood by and urged her son on.

An extensive copper placer has been discovered at St. Flavian, in Canada East near Quebec. The veins have been traced for a full mile, and everywhere the ore seems to be of great richness, while the quality is believed to be equal to that of the famous Acton mine. It is owned by citizens in Quebec.

STEALING PRINCIPLES.—A Prominent Democrat living in one of the rural towns in this county "got off" a "specimen brick" a few days since which is too good to be lost. Speaking of the defalcation of the late State Treasurer Bates, he remarked: "It's just like these thieving Republicans! They've been trying this good while to steel our name, and now they've stole our principles!" It was conceded all around that the old gentleman was not far out of the way.—Vt. Phoenix.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 9. It is reported that great activity prevails in Fort Moultrie. The movements of the garrison seem to indicate that an attack from the secessionists is anticipated.

Lincoln has been burned in effigy at Fernandina.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10. The President has just been assured that South Carolina will resist the collection of duties or attack the forts during the remainder of his administration.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. The steamer "Huntsville" arrived here yesterday from Savannah, with eighty-six steerage passengers sent back by the authorities.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—There is a better feeling among politicians, but every mail brings news of the spread of disunion sentiments.

The South Carolina members say they would be pleased to see Hon. John A. Andrew here and hear his views, but it is too late for any earthly power to prevent secession.

A SIMPLE REMEDY FOR BRONCHITIS.—A writer in the Baltimore Sun, who has been afflicted severely in his family, by that appalling disease, bronchitis, has found relief from the following remedy:—"Take honey in the comb, squeeze it out and dilute with a little water, and wet the lips and mouth occasionally with it." It had never been known to fail, in cases where children had throats so swollen as to be unable to swallow. It is certainly a simple remedy, and may be a very efficacious one.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Dec. 10. Mr. Botts, in his letter, says he will not have anything to do with the wickedness of secession. He thinks Virginia will not secede. He says the position of South Carolina is that of a bold, plain, daring, flat footed rebellion against the Government, and treason to the rest of the States.

He thinks the only question involved in the South Carolina imbroglio is whether it is worth while to keep her in the Union. He believes the Federal laws should be enforced in South Carolina, and his letter is generally quite bitter on the seceding party.

We take the liberty of publishing a part of a letter which has fallen into our hands, and refers somewhat to our business:

DEAR BROTHER BEN: I have finished my fall's work.—at least got it all sung. Made a good thing out of my hope.—can't brag so much about the butter, but the cheese did first chop. So of course I am all ready for winter, and feel to-day awfully inclined to write a letter. I must tell about some of our improvements here on the Street. Dutton & Hyde have just repaired their store and made it spick and span bright and new outside and inside. In fact, I have been a little surprised to see how much they have done in a short time, for I hadn't been into their store since they commenced fixing up. But t'other day the Doctor told me to get some medicine at Dutton and Hyde's for it was no where else to be found.

Well, they have just the largest and best assortment of drug's and medicine's I've seen out of Montpelier or Burlington. I got my medicine, and before I got away, bo't the biggest pile of goods I have bo't for many a day, a lot of school-books and toy-books, Pen's, Ink and Paper, a dress for Biddy, and a cap for Jake,—by the way, it's astonishing to me how that boy grow's. He wear's a cap big enough for me, and my coat is plaguy near a fit for him, too. If I do say it they have got some of the best boot's I ever saw anywhere, they are mighty thumpers and mighty cheap, and as for women's congress Boot's they've got 'em laugh to bust to see a new fashion with heel's and sole's as thick as Shaw's thick boot.

But they are real sensible now—you just buy Susan a pair if you want to do the real thing by her. Of course I bo't a pair for Biddy. I bo't we an election hat as I tell Biddy, and a putty smart kind of an overcoat, cost about fourteen dollar's and a cheap at that, besides a black silk vest to match my hat and Biddy's dress! The boy's are having a good trade this fall, no mistake. Fact is I'm almost ashamed to see what a lot of stuff we bo't—but we needed it all and since I've got the money—thank's to hard work, and a good market. Biddy sends a sample of her dress, which she hopes Susan will like.

We are constantly receiving new supplies from market, and hope to be able to suit all who may honor us with a call, both in the variety and the quality of our goods; and we feel confident that we shall be able also to make the price so low that all will find it to their advantage to purchase of us what they may need in our line.

Give us a call.
